

Doctoral Psychology Financial Aid Application 2010-2011

Complete this form if you wish to receive financial aid from the clinical doctoral program. This application IS NOT for financial aid received from the University or from any other place. This application should be completed in addition to the FAFSA. Current students must e-mail this form to Dr. Ortiz by April 15th. Applicants to the program should bring this form to their interview. Late applications will be considered last and may result in less aid or no aid at all.

STUDENT INFORMATION

Name: _____

Marital Status: Single Married

Year in Program in Sept 2009: _____

Masters Degree? Yes No Ethnicity: _____

INDICATE THE TYPE OF FINANCIAL AID FOR WHICH YOU WOULD LIKE TO BE CONSIDERED. YOU MAY CHECK OFF AS MANY CHOICES AS YOU WANT TO.

Work Scholarship

Time Requirement: 6 hours a week for academic year

Description: Working with a professor on research

Pay: $7,000 and up per academic year

Please state which professor or professors you would most like to work with: _____

TA for Child Assessment Class

Time Requirement: 6 hours a week for one semester

Pay: $3,500 and up

Participant Observer Editor

Time Requirement: 6 hours a week for academic year

Description: Working with Dr. Goodman on the Participant Observer.

Pay: $7,000 and up per academic year

Intro Psych Teaching Assistantship

Time Requirement: 2.5 hours of in class teaching time plus prep time

Description: Teaching your own section of introductory psychology.

Pay: $7,000 and up per academic year

Fellowships to Reduce Service Disparities (See full description on PsyD website)

Time Requirement: 100 hours per academic year

Pay: $14,000 and up per academic year

Safe Zone Coordinator (See full description on PsyD website)

Time Requirement: About 50 hours per academic year

Pay: $14,000 and up per academic year

4th Year PSC Assistant to the Director

Time Requirement: 1 day/week in the clinic + one half day of work at home

Pay: $7,000 and up per academic year

STUDENT & SPOUSE INCOME INFORMATION

Fill this out truthfully. Lying about your financial situation will only cause someone with even more need than you to lose out on aid. Some aid is need-based, so leaving this part blank may hurt your chances for that aid.

Student & Spouse/Partner Estimated 2009 Adjusted Gross Income (AGI) $ _____

Loans you expect to take out for the 2009-2010 academic year (please list): $ _____

Free Money (money from parents, scholarships, TAP, etc; please list): $ _____

STUDENT/SPOUSE ASSET INFORMATION

Own Home Rent Live with parents

Value of home: $ _____

Mortgage against home: $ _____

Cash/Savings/Checking Account: $ _____

Investments: $ _____

Total: $ _____

Please use the optional space below if you would like to add anything about your financial situation

Certification: All of the information provided above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge. If sending by e-mail, you can just type in your name

Student Signature

Date

If you are applying for a service disparity fellowship, please BRIEFLY describe your career goals with respect to the groups identified in the announcement on our website, which group(s) most interest you, and what specific activities you will undertake during the year of the award that will help you to gain expertise with an underserved population: